

eCommunications Surveillance

Reduce risk and protect brand value

Attivio's solution for eCommunications Surveillance uniquely enables financial organizations to dramatically reduce reputational risk and protect brand value. With holistic surveillance that connects to the eCommunications data and content that organizations are required to monitor, Attivio proactively surfaces concise and accurate information that enables compliance.

PROACTIVE MONITORING

Failure to effectively monitor eCommunications exposes financial organizations to a tremendous amount of risk. Whether the risk is driven by the dissemination of sensitive information, inappropriate employee behavior, or a violation of regulatory policies, it's imperative that firms confidently mitigate these risks so they can protect brand value.

Attivio's solution for eCommunications Surveillance:

- Enables holistic surveillance of your eCommunications that can quickly onboard new sources of content,
- Reduces regulatory fines and penalties by proactively monitoring multiple sources of eCommunications data,
- Increases compliance analyst productivity by focusing effort on high-risk individuals, eCommunications, and trades,
- Reduces false positive alerts through a broad range of capabilities, including multi-variable risk modeling and rule effectiveness testing.
